

‘WOMEN OF THE WORLD’

Specifically designed for women travellers, whether couples, friends or solo, this 10-day Escorted Journey by Air combines three incredible destinations into one awe-inspiring journey.

The 10-day tour will be by private chartered aircraft departing from the UK. The itinerary will include 3 nights in each destination: Marrakech, Tuscany and Peloponnese.

Bartelings has curated this journey to celebrate women’s achievements and empowerment, enabling guests to immerse themselves in a cultural extravaganza that combines food, fashion, health and wellbeing.

Our privately chartered aircraft allows us the opportunity to seamlessly connect these distinctive destinations. Furthermore, the accompanying team will ensure you don’t have to worry about the detail. The tour team will look after all aspects of your journey, ensuring your clients an incredible and memorable experience that will guarantee them coming back for more.

Day 1-3 | Marrakech, Morocco

We depart from the private terminal at London Stansted and board our private aircraft for the direct flight to Marrakech. Guests will experience the excellent service on board and relax into the journey ahead.

There are over 5,000 women working in more than 170 cooperatives across Morocco, particularly in rural areas. They have become successful enterprises, securing income for marginalised families as well as contributing to the economic development of the country. Incorporating century old traditions of embroidery and needlework to preserve the fashion heritage, to supplying an international demand for argan oil for traditional medicine and the beauty trade.

We will visit Morocco's fashion cooperatives as well as the souks, soaking up the colourful sights and exotic aromas.

A day trip to the Atlas Mountains, dotted with remote Berber villages, are a trekkers dream.

Day 4-6 | Tuscany, Italy

We re-join the crew on our private aircraft to fly directly to Tuscany, Italy.

Tuscany is famous for its wine and one vineyard in particular is a flagship for women in the wine business. Donatella Cinelli Colombini left her family's estate in 1998 to start her own vineyard.

As she embarked on her journey to establish herself as an equal in the industry, Donatella employed a female cellar master, and has continued to develop a female staff across the whole business with the winery run entirely by women.

Flying aboard our private aircraft to one of the most undeveloped areas of Tuscany, guests will appreciate the stunning panoramas, small hamlets and natural beauty of the uncluttered countryside, whilst anticipating some of the most delectable food and wine the region has to offer.

We will meet the winemaker and vinters at the Casato Prime Donne Estate for a wine tour and tasting.

Our tour will take us to Siena, a city distinguished by its medieval buildings and fan-shaped central piazza.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, it is an impressive site and full of cultural gems.

At the Fattoria del Colle Estate we will enjoy a traditional Italian cookery course, and guests can take advantage of the wellness and relaxation areas and natural beauty treatments.

Day 7-9 | Peloponnese, Greece

Once again onboard our private charter with our crew, guests will be welcomed for the journey to our final destination. The often-overlooked Peloponnese region, is a southern peninsula of Greece, connected to the mainland by the Isthmus of Corinth. The Greek Peloponnese boasts a striking mountain range and dramatic coastline with plentiful rich history of ancient ruins, such as Ancient Olympia.

This wild and mythical region has nature and culture in abundance and we take advantage of one of the best wellness resorts in the world.

The Euphoria Retreat, founded by Marina Efraimoglou and based around her own Greek heritage and personal journey of recovery, is firmly established as a leading wellbeing destination marrying East and West healing philosophies.

We also explore the archaeological site of Mystras, an ancient castle town of the Byzantine period. With an imposing palace on top of the hill, the old town is famed for its Byzantine churches and beautiful frescoes. The area is perfect to stride out and hike the old ruins.

Day 10 | Return to UK

As we journey home aboard our private aircraft, guests will mingle with new friends, enjoy the on-board hospitality and start dreaming of their next trip.
